

The Sunblocker fabric drop roller by QUEEN CITY is a traditional, time-tested design that creates shade on porches and patios when the sun is low in the sky. The Sunblocker is an ideal addition to our patio canopies because it continues to provide protection when the sun dips below the canopy and can also be used to create privacy on a porch or patio. The Sunblocker fabric drop roller is custom made to fit most applications and can be removed during winter months for storage. Fabric Awnings have a natural inviting warmth and are available in hundreds of colors. Century Series Fabric Awnings are hand crafted from the finest materials and feature the latest architectural fabrics specifically designed for exterior use.

Note:

The Sunblocker drop roller is not intended to provide protection from wind or rain. The Sunblocker should be rolled up during wind and/or rain. When the Sunblocker is in its down position it should be secured with the tie down ropes. Inspect the Sunblocker periodically to make sure it does not rub against adjacent structures.
